

Singing doctor to debut new CD at winery

Matt Koger, Greenville's singing doctor, will debut "Armadillo Time" at the Blue Armadillo Winery this Friday and Saturday.

The CD release party is free and copies of the recording will be available at the venue. Shows start at 8 p.m.

Koger's songs have been compared to an old Cadillac's windshield flying down a country road at midnight — they catch everything. Icons, misfits and family are all fleshed out in universal themes. Lauded by Nashville and Austin alike, Koger's first two solo efforts, "Blackland" (2006) and "The Coyote's Call" (2008), earned him a Texas Indie Music Awards Rising Star nomination. "Armadillo Time" was inspired by his regular gig at the Blue Armadillo Winery.

Koger pulls from his deep Texas roots to write songs. His own mantra of being "decidedly non-commercial" drives an authentic voice being heard all over Texas.

STEM program